Maison de Taittinger "La Française" Brut (Pinot Noir-Chardonnay)

Reims, Champagne AOC, France

Although Maison de Taittinger is located in the northern vineyards of Reims, an area where Pinot Noir tends to grow best, they have long maintained a house style based on Chardonnay. Their "Brut de La Française" sets a standard among the non-vintage Champagnes with a uniquely high, 40 percent portion of the Queen of the white varieties.

This wine has a subtle, pale gold color with fine, persistent bubbles. It is delicate with aromas of peach, white flowers, vanilla bean, and brioche on the nose and flavors of fresh fruit and honey on the palate.

Recommended pairings: Classic Caesar Salad
